Land Talais

For sale, beautiful buildable land with a total area of 2,897 m², offering a pleasant and natural setting. The land is currently wooded, providing charm, privacy, and a lush environment—perfect for a harmonious construction project. It benefits from two access points: One access via the road, A second access through a path, offering real flexibility in layout and circulation. With its size, layout, and surroundings, this land is ideally suited for building a primary or secondary residence in a peaceful and preserved environment.
